PERSONAL OVERVIEW

Travis is a licensed Minnesota real estate agent. He has an A.A.S. Degree in Industrial Technology, vast facility maintenance knowledge, and is experienced with the variety of logistics that come into play when working with building tenants to satisfy their facility needs.

Travis brings a strong customer service philosophy to property management. He believes open communication, responsiveness, teamwork, and maximizing asset values are key components to a successful business relationship. Putting clients first and understanding their needs are his top priority. Through the Hibbing Area chamber he has completed the Hibbing Chamber Leadership Program.

In his free time, Travis enjoys working with new technologies and spending time with his wife and two daughters in Hibbing, MN.
